

ALL ABOUT WORLD BOOK DAY

World Book Day is a charity on a mission to help change children's lives by making reading together and reading for pleasure a habit for life.

Reading for pleasure is the single biggest indicator for success in life, more than family circumstances, educational background, or income (Organisation for Economic Co-operation & Development).

The evidence base shows there are 6 building elements which support a child to read for pleasure.

There are 6 elements which support a child reading for pleasure:

1. Being read to regularly
2. Having books at home and school
3. Having a choice in what to read
4. Finding time to read
5. Having trusted help to find a book
6. Making reading FUN!

This issue celebrates World Book Day which takes place the week after half term. Check our Facebook page soon for news of exciting activities taking place in the library that week.

Look at the fantastic books for only £1 or free with your National Book Token.

Did you know that your token can also be used for £1 off any book of your choice. Click here to find your local bookshop.

£1 Tokens are available in the library.

The World Book Day charity runs a book club, where they recommend new books. This book below is by a fantastic author, Benjamin Zephaniah.

Click on this link to find a whole host of resources including interviews and videos with Benjamin including his favourite book recommendations and discover what books and reading mean to him.

SPRUCE UP A SPUD FOR WORLD BOOK DAY!

This year, we want you to decorate your potatoes again as a book character. These are the winners from last year. Can you do even better?

For your chance to win a prize, bring your creations into the library week commencing Monday 28th February. Winners will be announced at the end of the week.

KS3

A gripping Victorian murder mystery.

Lily's life is in mortal peril. Her father is missing and now silver-eyed men stalk her through the shadows. What could they want from her?

With her friends - Robert, the clockmaker's son, and Malkin, her mechanical fox - Lily is plunged into a murky and menacing world. Too soon Lily realizes that those she holds dear may be the very ones to break her heart...

These fantastic books are always available on SORA. Click the image below:

KS3+

An award-winning story of survival in the harshest place.

In the summer of 1727, a group of men and boys are put ashore on a remote sea stack to harvest birds for food. No one returns to collect them. Why? Surely nothing but the end of the world can explain why they have been abandoned to endure storms, starvation and terror. And how can they survive, housed in stone and imprisoned on every side by the ocean?

Favourite childhood read:

Most Inspirational:

Currently reading:

Miss Walker

History Teacher